

Florida Reemployment Assistance Application

The Florida Department of Economic Opportunity (DEO) encourages all Floridians who have lost their job as a direct result of COVID-19, to apply for Reemployment Assistance benefits.

Before You Begin, Consider the Following:

- DEO strongly encourages you to submit your application online at FloridaJobs.org and select “File a Claim.”
- By applying for Reemployment Assistance benefits through the online application, your claim will be processed faster.
- Use of the paper form should be considered a last resort when submitting your application as it may delay processing of your application.
- When completing the paper application, please type your information, then print and mail in your application. Please ensure that you complete all of the required fields. Page 2 lists important documents needed to complete your application.

Don't have access to the online application?

- Visit a local public library. Library staff can assist you with accessing the internet, so you can complete your application.
- You can also contact your local CareerSource center for assistance and questions about completing your application. Please visit CareerSourceFlorida.com to find locations and contact information for your local career center. CareerSource staff will be available to walk you through the application process over the phone as well as in person, in some locations. We recommend you call your CareerSource center to check their hours of operation.

Contact DEO at 1-833-FL-APPLY (1-833-352-7759) if you need assistance or have questions about completing your Reemployment Assistance application.

What information and documents should I collect before beginning my application?

To ensure your application is complete and processed efficiently, have the following information available when submitting an application for Reemployment Assistance:

- Social Security number.
- Driver's License or State ID number.
- Employment information for the last 18 months for each employer.
- Employer identification number, also known as FEIN number, if available. This number can be found on your W2 or 1099 tax form.
- Employer name (name on pay stub), address, and phone number.
- First and last day of work.
- Gross earnings (before taxes) covering the last 18 months.
- Reason for separation.

If one of the following criteria applies to you, have the following additional information available:

- Not a U.S. Citizen: Alien Registration Number or other work authorization form.
- Military employee: A copy of your DD-214 Member 4. If you do not have a Member 4, a copy of your Member 2-7 may be used.
- Federal employee: SF-8 or SF-50.
- Union member: Union name, hall number, and phone number.

DEPARTMENT OF ECONOMIC OPPORTUNITY
REEMPLOYMENT ASSISTANCE APPLICATION FOR SERVICES

I hereby claim benefits under the Florida Reemployment Assistance Law. I am not seeking benefits under any other state or Federal system. At the discretion of the department, this application for benefits may be accepted as my registration for work and employment services. I understand the Florida Reemployment Assistance Law provides penalties for knowingly making false statements for the purpose of obtaining benefits. I declare that the statements made in connection with this claim are true and correct to the best of my knowledge and belief. I understand the information is subject to verification and agree to provide such documentation as required.

Claimant Signature: _____ Date: _____

The Department of Economic Opportunity may e-mail me for additional information needed in determining my claim.

My E-Mail Address is: _____

I understand the Department of Economic Opportunity will maintain the confidentiality of my e-mail address pursuant to section 443.1715, Florida Statutes.

PRIVACY ACT STATEMENT

The information you provide to this Department is voluntary and confidential but is required to process your claim. Pursuant to the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, the Social Security Act, 42 U.S.C. 1320b-7(a)1, and s. 443.091(1)(h), F.S., disclosure of your Social Security number is mandatory. Social Security numbers will be used by the department to report the benefits you receive to the Internal Revenue Service as potential taxable income. In accordance with the Federal Deficit Reduction Act, an amendment to the Federal Social Security Act, and 5 U.S.C. 552a(o)(1)(D), information you provide is subject to verification through computer matching programs and information about your wages and claim may be provided to other federal, state and local agencies or their contractors for verification of eligibility under other government programs to ensure benefits have been properly paid and for statistical and research purposes.

Employers are authorized by law to provide this Department with information needed to determine our eligibility for benefits. This information includes your dates of employment, wages paid and the reason for your employment separation. Information you provide about why you left specific employment may be disclosed to that employer so that this Department may determine your eligibility for benefits.

I have answered all questions fully and truthfully. I know there are penalties for giving wrong information. I know that to receive benefits I must meet the eligibility requirements.

By submitting this application, I acknowledge that I am filing this application for reemployment assistance for myself and that all information provided is complete and accurate to the best of my ability; I further understand that knowingly making a false statement or representation or knowingly failing to disclose a material fact can be prosecuted as a third degree felony pursuant to section 443.071, Fla. Stat.

I have read and agree with the above: YES NO Enter your Social Security Number: _____

FRAUD STATEMENT

Florida Law provides that knowingly making a false statement, in order to obtain or increase Reemployment benefits, is a third degree felony punishable by up to $5,000 in fines and five years in jail. It is also illegal to file a claim or claim benefit weeks for someone else. All cases determined to be fraudulent can be referred to the State Attorney's office for prosecution. Each week of benefits fraudulently claimed is a separate offense for prosecution.

If you give false information or a false Social Security Number when filing your claim, you could be arrested for fraud.

I acknowledge that I understand this statement and wish to continue to file my claim.

General Information – Tax Withholding

Reemployment Assistance benefits are fully taxable if you are required to file a tax return.

Public Law 103-465 requires the Department of Economic Opportunity to deduct and withhold federal income tax from Reemployment Assistance if an individual receiving those benefits voluntarily requests such deduction and withholding. You may request a withholding deduction equal to 10% of your weekly assistance for federal income taxes.

A statement, Form 1099-G, will be furnished to you at the end of January stating the amount of benefits paid and withheld during the prior year. The same information will be transmitted to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS).

The income taxes deducted are held in trust for the U.S. Government All refunds must be obtained from the IRS on any overpayment of income taxes.

The department is not responsible for refunding withheld taxes.

It may be necessary for you to make estimated tax payments. For more information on when these payments should be made, refer to the IRS publication titled "Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax" or contact the Internal Revenue Service. PLEASE DIRECT ALL QUESTIONS CONCERNING YOUR INCOME TAX LIABILITY TO THE INTERNAL REVENUE SERVICE.

Tax Withholding Choice

Do you want federal taxes withheld from any reemployment assistance payable to you?

- I hereby authorize the Department of Economic Opportunity NOT to deduct and withhold federal income tax from my reemployment assistance.
- I hereby authorize the Department of Economic Opportunity to deduct and withhold federal income tax from my reemployment assistance benefits.

Identity Verification

Please verify your identity by entering your Social Security Number:

- I certify that I am making the above choice regarding my federal income tax withholding status

Workforce Registration

I understand that Florida law requires me to register with Workforce Services via Employ Florida Marketplace to continue my eligibility for benefit payments.

A link will be provided to me after I have submitted my application and will also be available on my account home page should I wish to complete it later.

I understand that payment of my claim will be delayed or denied if I do not complete my registration with Workforce Services prior to requesting my benefit payments for the first time.

I agree

CareerSource Center

I understand that I will be notified if I am required to attend a CareerSource Center Seminar. Failure to attend by the given date may result in a delay or loss of my reemployment assistance benefits.

If a CareerSource Center gives me a job referral, I understand that failure to pursue this referral may result in a loss of reemployment assistance benefits.

I agree

Requesting Benefit Payment

I understand the following:

- I am required to request benefit payments for each week I wish to receive benefits.
- The first week of a new benefit year for which I would be eligible to receive reemployment assistance benefits will be an unpaid waiting week.
- If there is a pending issue or appeal on my claim, I must continue requesting benefit payments in order to be paid for those weeks if I am later determined to be eligible.

I agree

Reporting Income

I understand that if I do any work, including military reserve drill pay or self-employment, I must report the total wages earned (before taxes), whether or not I have been paid when I request benefit payment for that week.

I agree
